Make a Twirligig Paper Spinner Toy!

This week's STEAM Star is Jude Davis, the four year old son of Kelsey Rost. He will show us how to make a homemade twirligig paper spinner! Follow along for step-by-step directions.

Materials & Supplies

- Hot gun and glue
- Scissors
- Construction paper
- Glue stick
- Wooden skewer

1. Cut 8 strips of paper about 1/2 inch wide and 11 inches long. Use one sheet of paper or as many colors as you'd like!
2. Cut 4 circles to measure about 1 1/2 inches in diameter.
3. Rub stick glue on one side of one circle cut out.
4. Arrange one end of the paper strips around the circle. Add glue as needed.
5. Rub stick glue on one side of another circle cut out and place it over the glued paper strips.

6. Next, take the third circle and glue one side of it. Connect the end of the paper strips to the inside of the circle. Once all strips are secured, glue the last circle on top of the strips to hold them in place.

Now you can play by holding the skewer in your hands and roll it around to make it twirl!

Be the next STEAM Star!

2021/2022 EXPENSES

Nona Long

October 1, 1940-June 1, 2022

Her career in education totaled thirty-eight years, beginning in Quincy in 1963. She taught American and British Literature at Quincy Senior High School, retiring in 1993. She took great pride in her teaching and maintained interest and contact long after retirement, attending innumerable class reunions of former students.

After retirement, she tutored in the Alternative School and taught adult extension classes in literature and classic film. Always a storyteller and incorporating her violin, she gave programs to clubs and nursing homes, often commenting that she was given far more in return than she gave.

Nona was a Jazz aficionado with large collections of classical and New Orleans Jazz recordings. Her interests included reading, classic literature, history, needlework, big bands, Bob Wills, and antique cars. Her loyal friendships are a tribute to the fullness of her life. In 2012, she and her father made the Great River Honor Flight, reliving it many times.

She served on the board of the Adams County Historical Society and the Villa Kathrine. Her memberships included the Great River Jazz Society, National Education Association, Illinois Education Association, Adams County Retired Teachers, Quincy Symphony Orchestra, and Vermont Street United Methodist Church. In addition to being a former member of POLIS, she was a former member of the Quincy Service League.
